Public Comments

Director Nyquist provided information on both the Metropolitan and the Commercial Districts' Mill Levies to the public, explaining the Mill Levies' roles in paying for District infrastructure. He further noted that bonds were re-issued a couple of years ago and that the Mill Levies generate revenue to pay these bonds. Director Nyquist stated that the Commercial District has outstanding bonds, needing to be refinanced and will be paid for by the Public Improvement Fee (PIF).

Director Nyquist described the county requirement for a 300-year water supply, which was predicted on a fully developed project from day one. The amount of water dedicated exceeds the amount of residential units, creating a supply in excess of 400 units. The buildout will be approximately 300 units. Director Nyquist stated the surplus can be sold to defray costs to residents. He informed the public that the last water rate increase was in 2016 and highlighted that rates are currently lower than neighboring communities. A member of the public inquired as to how the amount of water utilized by trucks compares to residential use. Mr. Harding explained that this does offer developmental impact – i.e. Wildpoint – but noted this is all highly regulated and monitored at the state level. He stated the wells will not be close enough to interfere. Mr. Harding described the structure of the aquifers and the process to drill wells, getting them at the clay lens level.

RECORD OF PROCEEDINGS

The public inquired as to how much water is sold for construction. Mr. Harding informed them that 4/1000 is residential while 13/1000 is for construction purposes. The public asked where construction water revenue is displayed within the Districts' budgets. Mr. Harding stated that the construction water revenue can be found under total water revenue on the approved budgets. The public asked what expenses for water services include. Mr. Harding informed the public that billing, chemicals, fuel, supplies, labor and testing are all items included as expenses for water services. A member of the public asked who is responsible for roads and storm water. Mr. Harding stated that roads and storm water are the county's responsibility.

The public questioned mill levy allocation. Mr. Harding informed the public that the residential refinancing of bonds allowed for a lower mill to service debt – lowering from 54.000 mills to 38.000 mills. This allowed for operational mills to be assessed. The public asked whether revenue coming from mills will cover PIF supported bond. Mr. Harding confirmed that revenue coming from mills will not cover the PIF supported bond.

The public requested a discussion on maintenance and concerns regarding mowing within the District, noting maintenance needed with the pond and gazebo. Director Lambert explained the history of the operational revenue and asked the public how they would like to proceed moving forward.

Discussion ensued regarding the Districts' budgets. Mr. Klausing suggested that the District's advanced repayment is offset by facility fees and inquired as to whether or not there is a limitation on the number of homes constructed within the District. Director Lambert noted that the county restricts density to a 300 per year supply. Mr. Klausing requested residential representation. Mr. Klausing also asked if the Bridal trails are public. Mr. Lambert confirmed that the Bridal trails are public and in order to make them private the HOA would need to purchase the trails at fair market value.
